HOW TO GET HERE
 &
Information for Conference Delegates

Travel INFORMATION

■ THE UNIVERSITY OF SUSSEX is located at Falmer, on the outskirts of Brighton, within easy reach of London and major international airports (Gatwick and Heathrow). The following information describes the various travel options available to visitors.

TRAIN

■ Travellers from London and on most other lines will need to change at Brighton or Lewes for Falmer Station, which is immediately opposite the University entrance and is well served by frequent local trains from Brighton and Lewes (about eight minutes from either direction) running until about midnight. Delegates with heavy luggage may prefer to take a taxi from Brighton Station, as there are no taxis at Falmer and the walk to the residences may take about ten minutes.

BUS

■ Bus numbers 28, 128, and 729 travel between Brighton (Old Steine) and Lewes and stop outside the University; bus number 25 runs between Brighton (Old Steine) and the University and comes to the North end of campus where the residences are located.

CAR

■ The University is on the main A27 road between Brighton and Lewes, about four miles (six kilometres) from the centre of Brighton and the same distance from Lewes. Visitors driving from London should take the M23/A23, coming off on the outskirts of Brighton to join the A27 eastbound towards Lewes. Drivers from the west should take the A27 direct to the University; from the east they should go to Lewes and follow the signs for Brighton.

There is ample car parking space on the campus. Visitors may use any of the designated car parks (see map) but should note that the car parks are open and unattended. Cars should be locked and objects of value should not be left in them.

TAXI

■ Taxis are available at Brighton and Lewes Railway Stations and in central Brighton, but please note there is no taxi service at Falmer Station.

AIR

■ London Gatwick Airport is much closer to the University of Sussex than London Heathrow and has better transport links to Falmer. From Gatwick take the train to Brighton or Lewes and change for Falmer (see section on 'Train' travel). From Heathrow you can take the underground (London Transport) to Victoria Railway Station and then the train to Brighton and on to Falmer. Alternatively, coaches (number 747) run from both Gatwick and Heathrow Airports to the centre of Brighton (from Heathrow this is a good option if you have lots of luggage).

SEA

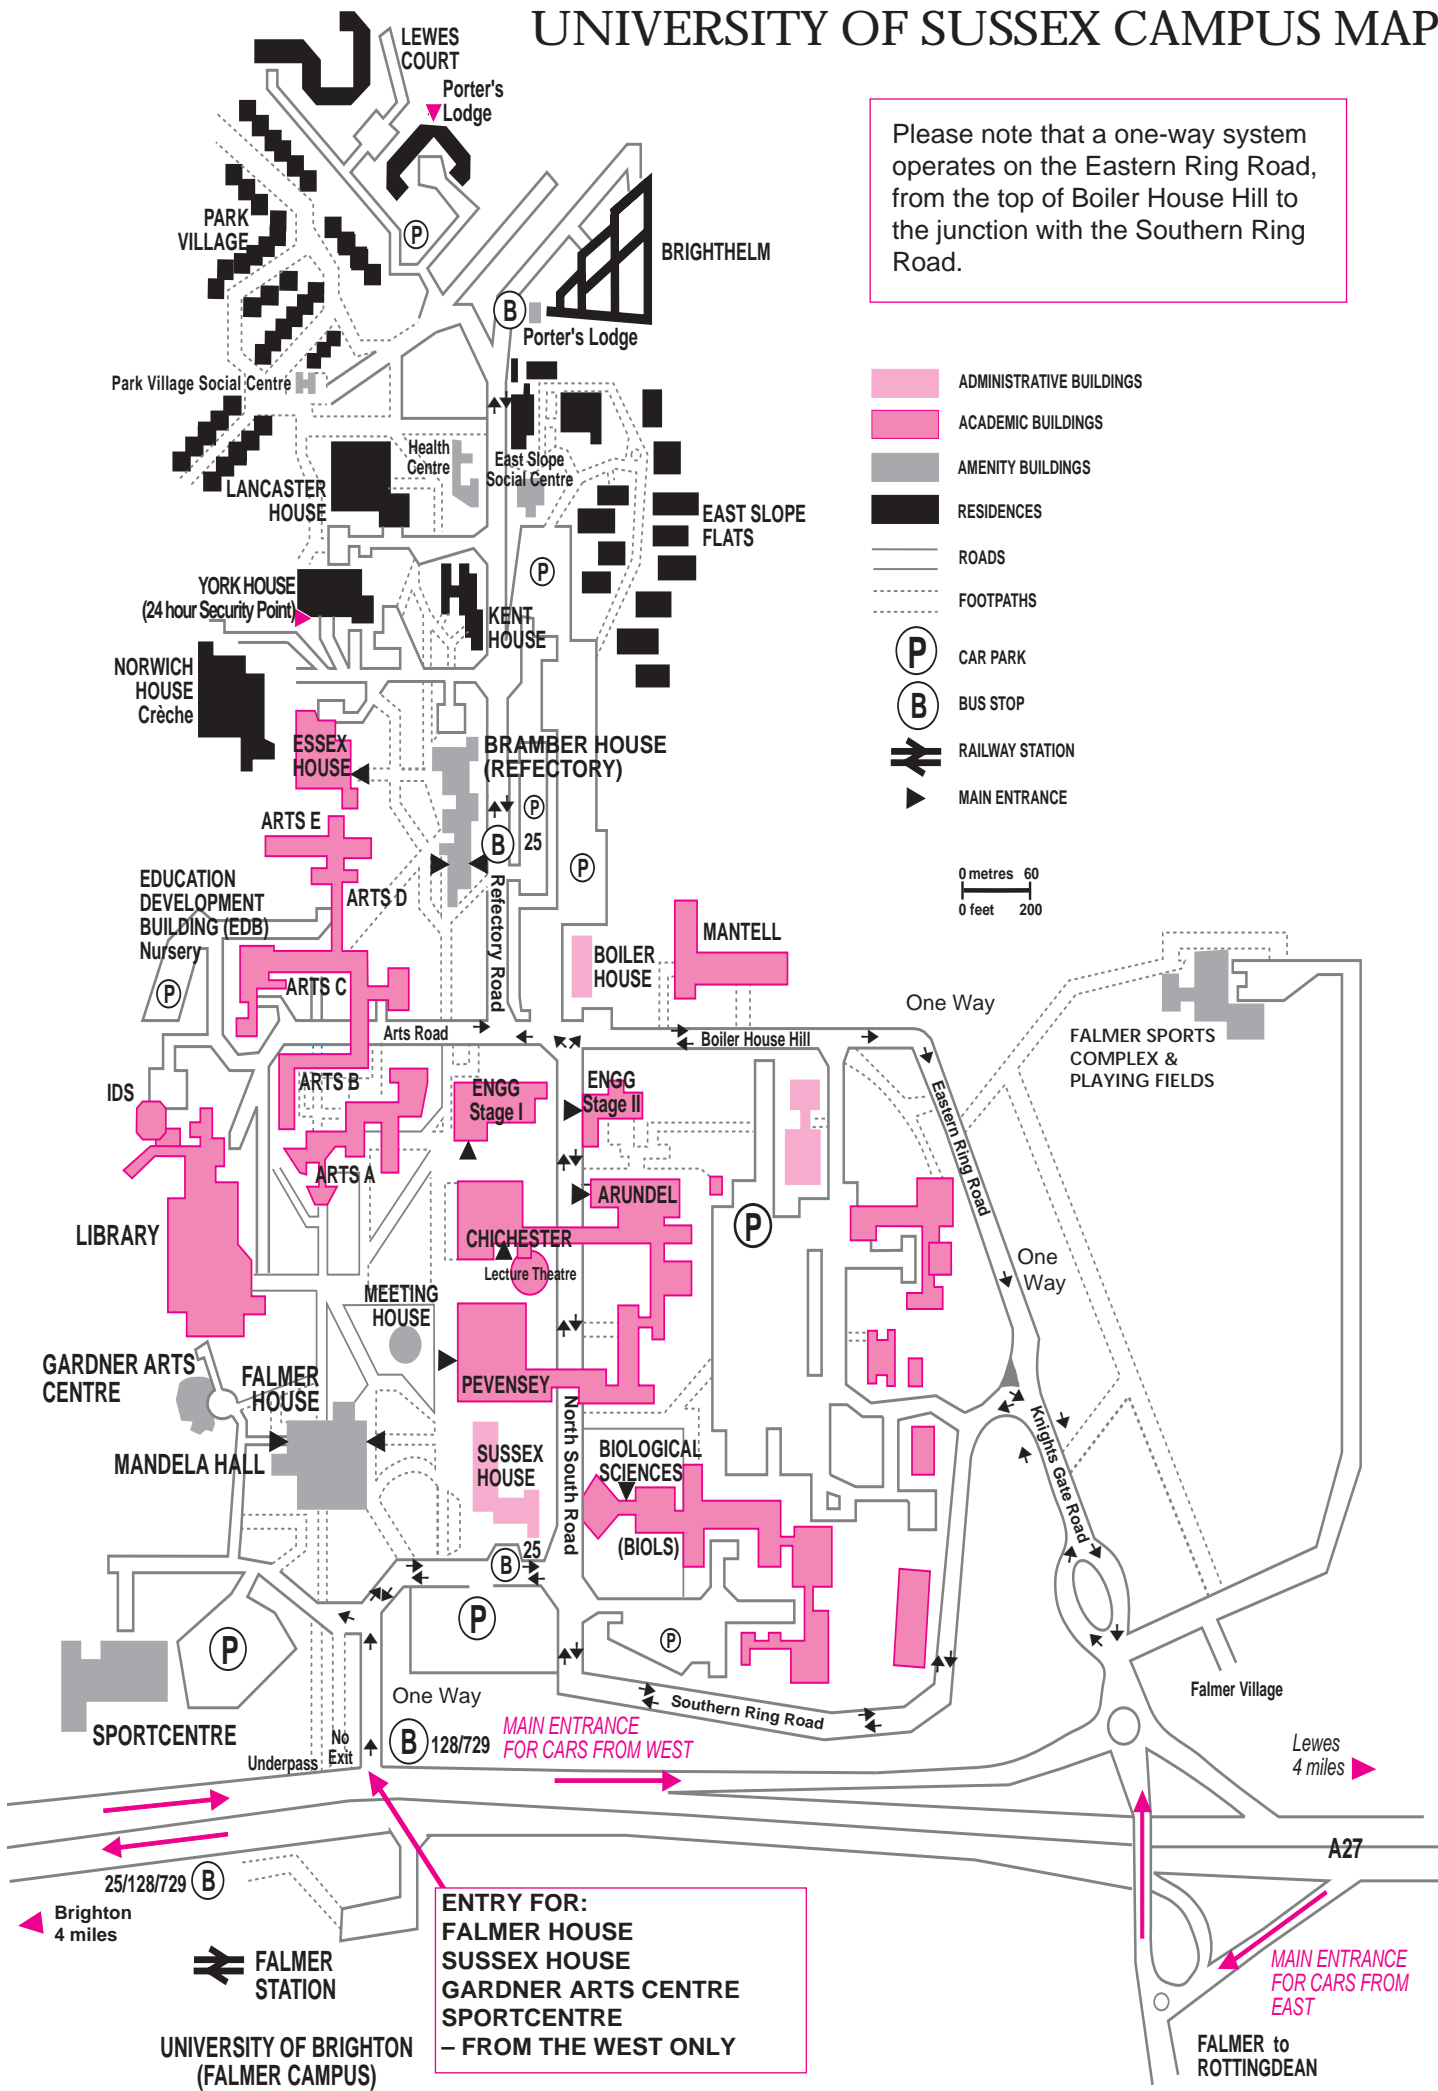

■ From Newhaven, take the train direct to Falmer. From Portsmouth or Southampton, take the train to Brighton and change there for Falmer. From all other ports, take the train to London and travel from Victoria via Brighton or Lewes.
